Mrs. John H. Hall of Forest avenue received a dispatch yesterday from Atlanta, Ga., stating that her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, was dangerously ill. Mrs. Hall was making preparations for her departure for Atlanta when a later message was received stating that Mrs. Thomas was much better and in no immediate danger.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Notwithstanding the unfinished condition of the brick street in front of our Third street warehouse we will be prepared to receive wheat there; also at the Roser warehouse corner Second and Wall.

RAINS BROS.

KILLED IN PARIS

Audley Green, Young Man Well Known in This City

Julius Throckmorton, son of Charles T. Throckmorton, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, shot and killed Audley Green in the saloon of Wood Brothers at Paris.

The cause of the difficulty is unknown.

Two of the five balls fired pierced Green's heart and he died instantly.

Throckmorton was arrested.

Green was a brother of Mrs. H. C. Sharp of East Second street, and well known in this city, where he resided with his sister for several years.

He was 21 years old.

About the last of the Home-Comers have departed and the affairs of the city have resumed their normal condition.

The 21 lots in the East End offered for sale yesterday by F. Devine, Agent, were bought by John Duley, the hustling real estate man.

In the Mason Circuit Court yesterday Mrs. Fannie E. Wilkinson of Kirksville, Mo., by her attorneys, Messrs. A. B. and A. D. Cole, filed suit in equity to settle the estate of the late George S. Rosser, and asking for a construction of his will. The First M. E. Church, South, and the Church of the Nativity, devisees of the El Paso Mining Stock, are among the defendants. The estate amounts, approximately, to $25,000.

ANOTHER WIFE-BEATER

Giving Officer the Slip, He Got Off Mighty Easy

Constable Marsh for the past several days has been on the lookout for Charles Weber, who, according to his wife's story as told the officer, beat her with a club, and as Constable Marsh says, her appearance certainly testifies to the truthfulness of the woman's assertion.

Yesterday during the absence of the Constable from the office, Weber appeared before Squire Pickrell and plead guilty to a breach of the peace and was fined and costed $5.75.

Had the case gone to trial and the testimony of witnesses heard there is no doubt but that Squire Pickrell would have meted out punishment in accordance with the enormity of the offense.

Weber is a fisherman and his family lives in Plutown.

Ashland Redmen will give a Carnival next week.

John Clift shipped a bunch of fine butcher's cattle to Cincinnati on the Courier yesterday.

NOTICE.

On and after July 1st our office will be at the Old Gold Mills. We will pay the market price for good milling wheat. Will keep the best grade of flour. Would be pleased to see our old customers.

SOCIETY

As the scene of reiterated hospitality, the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lissant Cox added another record to its long list of charming functions in the delightful reception of yesterday morning. The occasion was doubly auspicious, being the formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Katherine Clay, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cox, to Mr. Leo Barr Crabbs of Kansas City, and it was also the birthday anniversary of Miss Cox.

In recognition of the events she was literally showered with flowers, and the radiant blossoms filled the drawing-room. Palms, ferns and sweet peas decorated the library and spacious reception hall, while the dining-room, embowered in feathery green, with its exquisite table adornment of roses, smilax and soft lights, made a picture to satisfy an artist's eyes. And material needs were as fully considered in the delicious cakes, ices and candies served, their heart shapes suggesting that Cupid presided at the feast.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox greeted the guests at the drawing-room door with the delightful cordiality which distinguishes their hospitality and which makes each guest feel their's is a special welcome.

Mrs. Cox wore an imported gown of embroidered pink chiffon, trimmed in Chantilly lace, made over pink radish. The beautiful daughter of the house received with charming grace the felicitations with which every one greeted her and she looked especially attractive in an exquisite empire frock of white liberty silk draped on a princess slip of satin.

Mr. Crabbs carried his honors with dignity while smiling his assent to the congratulations that encompassed him. Cultured, dignified and courteous, he most happily impressed the friends of his fiancee. Though young, Mr. Crabbs's business ability identified him with the most prominent financial interests of Kansas City.

Assisting in the hospitalities of the morning were Mrs. Cox's mother, Mrs. Katherine Albert, becomingly gowned in white silk deftly touched with black and mauve. Miss Cox's charming house guests, Miss Beatty of Missouri, wore a princess frock of red silk, Miss Hudgins of Georgia was gowned in pink organdy over silk, Miss Bass of New York wore blue crepe de chine.

Presiding in the dining-room were Mesdames George Barbour, John Hunt and Miss Mary Alter Barbour.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox extended their hospitality to the younger set in a delightful dance at Beechwood last night.

The temperance people in Mayslick are persistent and determined in expelling the sale of intoxicants from their midst. Yesterday a lady from the burg was in the city canvassing among the merchants and citizens in general for money with which to conduct an active campaign against the liquor traffic in her town. It was not learned how much she succeeded in raising, but her mission was not a failure by any means.

JUDGE KINKEADE of Toledo gave the ice men a cold deal when he fined a bunch of them $5,000 apiece and sent them to the "cooler" for one year.

THOSE Congressmen whose election depends on the foreign vote, have succeeded in passing an Immigration Bill which admits into this country any Anarchist who can pay $2. Those Congressmen should be obliged to look out for the American vote.

THE "corporations" will fight back. The recent Ohio Legislature passed a law making it high treason for a railroad company to charge more than 2 cents a mile for riding-on-the-rail in that state; and now come the railroads with notice that all Fourth-of-July excursioners in Ohio will have to pay that rate. Heretofore the price has been 1½ fare for the go-and-come.

ACCORDING to the Washington correspondent of The Courier-Journal, there's one Congressman who is providing against future contingencies—

"There's an obscure little man in the House of Representatives, serving time for his first offense, which he will never have an opportunity to repeat, who, so far from trotting in the million dollar class, walks to and from the Capitol from his meager little boarding place on the opposite edge of town, to save car fare, his lunch is in his pocket, and supports existence entirely upon his mileage, that he saves by seldom going home, and the $125 a year the Government allows him for stationery. He doesn't travel and he doesn't write, so he's that much to the good. With the $10,000 two years' Congressional salary intact he proposes to buy a vast tract of Western land and withdraw from the storm and stress of a statesman's life."

THE only Prohibition Law that ever successfully "Prohibited" is the Prohibition Law that each man makes for himself. The drunkard doesn't support the saloon; it's the "moderate" drinker, the fellow who takes four or five a day, and "treats" four or five others each time he drinks.

BECAUSE the majority of the people of Louisville want the barrooms closed on Sunday, there's a 2x4 'Squire down there who issues warrants for the men who sell ice and cigars and pies and things on that day. If the Louisvillians are really in earnest in their desire to close the saloons, just let them quit drinking for six months. That will not only shut them up on Sunday, but it will shut them up forever.

HOW HE DID IT.

"It's strange that I can't get my wife to mend my clothes," remarked Mr. Blaine in tone of disgust, according to an exchange. "I asked her to sew a button on this shirt this morning and she hasn't touched it."

"You asked her?" said Mr. Norris, with a slight shrug of his shoulders.

"Yes. What else should I do?"

"You haven't been married very long, so perhaps you will take a tip from me," answered Mr. Norris, with a fatherly air. "Never ask a woman to mend anything. That's fatal."

"Why, what do you mean?"

"Do as I do. When I want a shirt mended, for instance, I take it in my hand and hunt up my wife. 'Where's that ragbag, Mrs. Norris?' I demand in a sharp voice.

"What do you want a ragbag for?" she says suspiciously.

"I want to throw this shirt away. It's all worn out," I reply.

"Let me see," she demands.

"But I put the garment behind my back."

"No, no, my dear," I answer; "there's no use in you attempting to do anything with it."

"Let me see it," she reiterates.

"But it's all worn out, I tell you."

"Now, James, you give me that shirt," she says, in her most peremptory tone.

"I hand over the garment."

"Why, James Norris," she cries, with womanly triumph, "this is a perfectly good shirt. All it needs is—"

"And then she mends it."

STATE COLLEGE of Kentucky, Lexington, Ky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz.: Agricultural, Chemical, Electrical, Mathematical, Physical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Mining Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers nearly fifty professors and instructors.

County apprentices receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and light, and if they remain ten months traveling expenses.

In dormitories and messrooms are large, well equipped, comfortable and modern. Military tactics and science are fully provided for as required by Congress.

Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remunerations. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the College to supply. The matriculation for the last year was, including summer school, 816.

The State College of Kentucky is the only institution in the Commonwealth doing, in any proper sense, university work.

The complete facilities of the College Home for Young Women provides facilities for good board and lodgings. It is well equipped with all modern conveniences, including bathrooms and a room for physical culture. It is heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is thus afforded to them of a thorough education in classics, modern languages, literature, science, mathematics, logic, metaphysics, history and political economy. No other institution in the state offers advantages for the education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

A new Library Building will, through the generosity of Mr. Andrew Carnegie, be erected during the next collegial year.

The Normal Department will be on a better footing than ever before. Last year's largely increased enrollment, with the corresponding growth of the Summer Normal School, both indicate that an era of prosperity surpassing that of all previous years has opened for the Normal Department of the State College.

WALL WILL CASE

Sent Back For New Trial By Court of Appeals

THE LEDGER some ten days ago announced that the Wall Will Case had been returned by the Court of Appeals for another trial in the Mason Circuit Court; and now it is permitted to print the opinion of the highest Court in full, rendered June 13th, 1906—

COURT OF APPEALS OF KENTUCKY.

Alexander H. Wall, &c.,
Appellants, against
Lydia E. Dimmitt, &c.,
Appellee.

Appeal from Mason
Circuit Court.

Opinion of the Court by Judge Paynter.

This case arises from an effort to probate a paper claimed to be the last will of Elizabeth A. Wall. The case was here on a former appeal from a verdict and judgment rejecting it as her will.—Wall v. Dimmitt, 114 Ky. 923.

The Court reversed the case, and in doing so said: "And when we eliminate the declarations of testatrix, testified to by Mrs. Dimmitt, there is very little evidence left in the record bearing upon the question of undue influence—certainly not enough to authorize the conclusion that the will was the result thereof. We are, therefore, of the opinion that the verdict, upon the case as presented in the record, is palpably against the weight of the evidence and for this reason the judgment must be reversed."

This Court held on the former appeal that the Lower Court erred in excluding from the consideration of the Jury the evidence of Dr. Alex. Hunter, Conn Guilfoyle and William C. Johnson as to declarations made to them by Dr. A. H. Wall. On the trial in the Lower Court the evidence of these witnesses was admitted. Outside of the testimony of these witnesses the evidence was substantially the same as on the former trial.

Dr. Hunter testified that he had a conversation with Dr. Wall shortly after latter had set his grandson up in business at Cottageville or Rectorville, in which conversation he said "that he had started Hal several times in business and that he had failed each time, and that he (Dr. Wall) had told him (Hal) that if he did not do better this time and quit his habits and go to work, that he was not going to have anything more to do with him, and that he was going to cut him off and see that he did not get any of his estate."

William C. Johnson testified that he and Dr. Wall had a conversation in 1896, and in the conversation he told Dr. Wall that he had loaned Hal some money, and in the conversation Dr. Wall said that Hal had been in the habit of coming to Maysville and asking him to let him have money and that he would let him have $5 or $10 at a time, and that he had made up his mind to quit it, and that he would see that Hal got but little of the Wall estate to squander.

Conn Guilfoyle testified that he and Dr. Wall had a conversation in 1896 in which Dr. Wall asked him how Hal was getting along and the witness answered "pretty well," and Dr. Wall thereupon said that he had "heard different," and further said that if Hal did not do better he would see that he was cut off and did not get anything.

The Court admitted this evidence upon the ground that it was competent, but as to the sufficiency of it together with the other testimony to support a verdict against the will the Court did not express any opinion. To hold that the testimony was admissible was only in effect holding that the evidence was of some value, but the extent of that value was not under consideration by the Court. The value of it as tending to show that the will had been superinduced by undue influence was almost infinitesimal. The observations of Dr. Wall show his solicitude about his grandson, Hal Dimmitt; he had been setting him up in business. It is evident that Dr. Wall made the statement to Mr. Johnson under a sense of mortification that his grandson was borrowing sums of money from others and not repaying them. The testimony of Dr. Hunter is to the effect that if his grandson did not do better that he should not have any of his estate. All that Dr. Wall said about his grandson, who was addicted to the liquor and morphine habit, evinced a great desire upon his part that he should become a good citizen, worthy of his confidence and a suitable person to receive part of his estate. The statements of Dr. Wall had the very slightest tendency to show that he intended to even use any influence with the noble woman who had been his companion so many years as to how she should dispose of her estate. Both of them desired that their estates should go to those of their blood, and that their grandson Hal, whom they had every reason to believe from the facts shown by this record, would soon squander whatever part of it he might receive. The evidence of Hunter, Guilfoyle and Johnson does not add to the other evidence in the record, which this Court on the former appeal and now says is "very little evidence," so as to have authorized the Jury to return a verdict that the paper in question was not the will of Mrs. Wall.

The verdict of the Jury is palpably against the weight of the evidence, and for that reason should be reversed. The former opinion precludes this Court now from holding, if it desired to do so, that the case should be reversed with directions to probate the will.

The judgment is reversed for proceedings consistent with this opinion.

PUBLIC LEDGER
MAYSVILLE, KY.

There seems to be more business activity along Third street since the conference of the Committee and contractor.

The Order of Railway Telegraphers at Louisville a few days ago filed an action against the L. and N. Railroad Company, wherein an injunction is prayed for. It is alleged that the L. and N. is using threats against the operators who desire to join the Order, and is resorting to the same tactics against those operators who belong to the Order.

President H. K. Taylor of Kentucky Wesleyan College, Winchester, has been authorized by the Board of Education to go into the field and raise $50,000 with which to establish a fund, the income to be used to educate young men preparing for the ministry and Preachers' sons. It is proposed to loan a worthy and needy young student $100 per year without interest, the principal to be paid back when the borrower shall have the ability to do so.

TWICE-TOLD TESTIMONY

Maysville People Are Doing All They Can for Fellow Sufferers.

Maysville testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Maysville who suffer from bad backs and kidney-ills. Let any sufferer doubt that the cures made by Doan's Kidney Pills are thorough and lasting, we produce confirmed proof—statements by Maysville people saying that the cures they told of years ago were permanent. Here's a Maysville case:

George N. Crawford, blacksmith and wheelwright, at Second and Lee streets, and living at 216 Lee street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"In the spring of 1900 I gave a testimonial telling what Doan's Kidney Pills had done for me, and I am pleased to say I can just as warmly recommend this remedy now as I did then. No other medicine ever gave me such prompt and positive relief from backache and kidney trouble as Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and I believe them to be by far the best remedy for kidney there is. Sufferers from such troubles ought to give it a trial."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
